ABSTRACT

This unit planning grid outlines the expectations of Delaware high school students for advanced music studies. The grid identifies nine standards for music: (1) students will sing, independently and with others, a varied repertoire of music; (2) students will perform on instruments, independently and with others, a varied repertoire of music; (3) students will improvise melodies, variations, and accompaniments; (4) students will compose and arrange music within specific guidelines; (5) students will read and notate music; (6) students will listen to, describe, and analyze music and music performances; (7) students will evaluate music and music performances; (8) students make connections between music, the other arts, and other curricular arts; and (9) students will understand music in relation to diverse cultures, times, and places. It contains information for specific performance activities for each standard and lists performance indicators for each standard. (BT)
